

Molina Jeune-Pierre

AUTHOR • MINISTER • SPEAKER

Rebuilding after life's storms.
Making room for purpose.

Share Faith. Defy Fear.

A lived story. A message of hope.

Faith. Family. Purpose.

Haitian-Bahamian

Wife & mother of four

Port St. Lucie, Florida

Molina Jeune-Pierre is an author, licensed Christian minister, speaker, and the creator behind Molina Inspires. Born in Marsh Harbour, Abaco, she brings a perspective shaped by faith, motherhood, and starting again.

Her message encourages women to face fear, rediscover their dreams, and keep pursuing purpose through changing seasons of life.

When the path changes, purpose remains.

01

The storm

In 2019, Molina survived Hurricane Dorian in Abaco while six months pregnant and lost her belongings.

02

The rebuilding

She relocated to South Florida and began rebuilding her life with her family, carrying her faith and dreams into a new chapter.

03

The message

Her experience gives hosts a personal starting point for a conversation about hope, resilience, and pursuing purpose.

From facing storms to making room.

PUBLISHED BOOK

Daydreaming on Unpaved Streets

Facing Storms on the Path of Purpose

A starting point for conversations about dreams, adversity, faith, and the path of purpose.

UPCOMING GUIDED DEVOTIONAL

Making Room for Purpose

A 30-day journey of reflection and prayer

An invitation to reflect, work through patterns, and make space for God and purpose.

Conversations your audience can carry home.

Faith after the storm

How do you begin again when life changes the plan?

Hope and a next step through uncertainty.

Making room for purpose

What needs to shift when you feel stuck or stretched thin?

Reflection on priorities, patterns, and room for God.

Motherhood & rediscovering dreams

How do you nurture family while honoring your calling?

Encouragement for women navigating a new season.

A meaningful interview, with a clear focus.

A natural fit for

Christian women's podcasts

Author & inspirational interviews

Motherhood & purpose conversations

Treasure Coast community features

Haitian & Bahamian diaspora stories

Suggested interview questions

What helped you begin again after Dorian?

How did that experience shape your writing?

What does “making room for purpose” mean?

What would you say to a woman afraid to restart?

Let's share a conversation of hope.

Guest interviews • Author features
Faith & purpose conversations

Molina Jeune-Pierre | Molina Inspires

molinajeune10@gmail.com

Social: @molinainspires • Port St. Lucie, FL

